

iVillage Weekly Top 10: Fall 2008 Shoe Trends

Swing Style

Consider this anti-grunge look. While some trends get tough for fall, others channel womanliness at its peak, like this 1940s-inspired Bon Voyage T-Strap from Poetic Licence. Come September, you'll see plenty of feminine frills in the form of flowers, oversize satin bows and curvaceous figures. This shoe is perfect for bridging day into night; its metallic leather has just enough shine for nighttime, without being too bold for work. The conical heel adds a dose of whimsy to an otherwise serious silhouette.

$98 at PoeticLicence.us (starting October 10); call 1-800-315-8971 for more information

For a cheaper alternative of this shoe trend, check out this Microfiber T-Strap Platform Heel for $18.99.
