

Volume XLVI, Number 17

PARAGLIDE

Free

Thursday, April 29, 2010

Telling the Fort Bragg and Pope Air Force Base Story™

www.paraglideonline.net

www.paraglideonline.net

Noteworthy

E-mail your briefs to braggparaglide@conus.army.mil

31 Days of Glory: The 31

Days of Glory celebration, honoring military heritage for the entire month of May kicks off Saturday with a book signing. N.Y. Times best-selling author Dana Canady, who wrote "A Journal for Jordan," will be signing her book at 3 p.m., at the North Post Exchange.

The Museum of the Cape Fear will also be displaying the personal effects of Lt. Hugh William Wellons, who was killed in Vietnam in 1966. The personal effects are referred to as "Hugh's Crate." The crate itself serves as a time capsule of personal possessions of a Soldier in Vietnam in October 1966. The exhibit also features items from Family, friends and fellow Soldiers.

The month-long celebration will feature numerous other events, including art exhibits, concerts and historical demonstrations.

For additional information, visit www.31daysofglory.com.