North Carolina County Creates "Soldiers' Sanctuary"

From PR Newswire

FAYETTEVILLE, N.C. -- A North Carolina county has declared itself a "Soldiers' Sanctuary," and enlisted a citizen "Army's Army" to defend.

On Sept. 5, in a statement of support for the nation's military men and women, Cumberland County, N.C. declared itself the "World's First Sanctuary for Soldiers and Their Families," with major roads entering the county marked by official blue and white "Sanctuary" signage.

Within the Sanctuary, soldiers will be eligible for local services ranging from free child care to job placement for soldiers' spouses.
