

Headlines

Cheney Gives US Backing to Georgia NATO Bid

Associated Press | September 04, 2008

Demonstrating Washington's support for war-ravaged Georgia, Cheney said the U.S. was "fully committed" to Georgian efforts to join NATO. Cheney also condemned Russia for what he called an "illegitimate, unilateral attempt" to redraw the U.S. ally's borders by force.

Full Story

World's First "Soldiers' Sanctuary"

PR Newswire | September 03, 2008

A North Carolina county has declared itself a "Soldiers' Sanctuary," and enlisted a citizen "Army's Army" to defend.

Full Story

Palin: Iraq War a 'Task From God'

Agence France-Presse | September 04, 2008

Republican vice-presidential pick Sarah Palin told students at her former church in Alaska that U.S. troops in Iraq were sent on a "task that is from God", and suggested that a $30 billion Alaskan gas pipeline is God's will, according to a video of the talk.

Full Story